PARTIES

4. Plaintiffs are the fiduciaries of three employee benefit plans—the Ohio Laborers’ District Council – Ohio Contractors’ Association Insurance Fund, the Laborers’ District Council and Contractors’ Pension Fund of Ohio, the Ohio Laborers’ Training and Apprenticeship Trust Fund—and one labor-management cooperative trust known as Ohio Laborers’ District Council – Ohio Contractors’ Association Cooperation and Education Trust. The plans collectively are known as the “Ohio Laborers Benefits,” and maintain their principal office and place of business at 800 Hillsdowne Road, Westerville, Ohio 43081. The plans also are obligated pursuant to collective bargaining agreements to collect contributions to the LIUNA Tri-Funds, three national labor-management cooperative trusts.

5. Defendant Bares Fence Company LLC (“Defendant”) is an Ohio corporation with its principal place of business in Medina County, Ohio. Defendant is an “employer” in “commerce” or “affecting commerce” within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 1002(5), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(1), and 29 U.S.C. § 1002(12), and within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 152(2), 29 U.S.C. § 152(5), and 29 U.S.C. § 152(7).

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

7. Defendant and Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 639 are signatory to various successive versions of the Building Agreement ("CBAs").

8. Defendant was at all times relevant bound to the Agreements and Declarations of Trust establishing the Ohio Laborers Benefits and the LIUNA Tri-Funds by virtue of executing the CBAs and performing work thereunder.

9. All of those referenced documents obligated Defendant to file monthly contribution reports, permit audits of its financial records, and make hourly contributions to the Ohio Laborers Benefits on behalf of all persons as defined in the aforesaid CBAs.

10. The CBAs, the Agreements and Declarations of Trust, and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Boards of Trustees for the Ohio Laborers Benefits authorize Plaintiffs to conduct an audit of financial records, collect delinquent contributions, and assess and collect liquidated damages where an employer like Defendant fails to timely remit required contributions and deductions.

11. In September 2021, Plaintiffs conducted an audit of Defendant and found that, between the time period of March 2019 and August 2021, Defendant failed to timely submit the required contributions, and as such, has been assessed damages in the grand total amount of $20,205.88—i.e., $13,258.58 in principal, $2,383.76 in liquidated damages, and $4,563.54 in interest through June 30, 2022—plus 1% monthly interest from July 1, 2022.

12. Plaintiffs have demanded payment from Defendant.

13. To date, Defendant has not remitted the required payments to Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs are entitled to collect at least $20,205.88 plus 1% monthly interest from July 1, 2022, attorney's fees, and costs, nor had Defendant submitted any additional monthly reports for hours worked since September 2021.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Breach of Collective Bargaining Agreement)

14. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

15. Pursuant to the terms of the CBAs, Defendant was required to remit contributions to Plaintiffs.

16. As such, Plaintiffs are intended third-party beneficiaries entitled to enforce the terms of the CBAs.

17. Defendant's failure to remit timely payment on the delinquent contributions and deductions, the liquidated damages, and interest assessed by Plaintiffs constitute a breach of the CBAs and a violation of 29 U.S.C. § 185.

18. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's breach of the CBAs, Plaintiffs have suffered damages.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(ERISA)

19. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

20. Defendant's failure to make said payments under the CBAs constitutes a violation of 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

21. Defendant's violation of 29 U.S.C. § 1145 has damaged Plaintiffs.

22. Plaintiffs therefore seek and are entitled to liquidated damages and interest due and owing on delinquent contributions, plus the costs involved in bringing this action, including attorneys' fees, court costs, and expenses pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g).

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Injunctive Relief)

23. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

24. In failing to pay contributions due and owing under the CBAs, Defendant breached the terms of the governing documents of the Ohio Laborers Benefits and violated 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

25. Plaintiffs therefore seek, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3)(A) and (B) an Order from this Court (1) ordering Defendant to make timely contributions, (2) enjoining Defendant from further breaching the terms of the governing documents of the Ohio Laborers Benefits and violating ERISA, (3) ordering Defendant to submit monthly contribution reports to Plaintiffs, and (4) enforcing the governing documents of the Ohio Laborers Benefits and ERISA.

DEMAND FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment as follows:

A. That this Court enter an Order that Defendant's failure to remit timely required contributions and deductions constitutes a violation of 29 U.S.C. § 1145;

B. That this Court enter an Order that Defendant's failure to timely remit required contributions and deductions is a breach of the CBAs and constitutes a violation of 29 U.S.C. § 185;

D. That this Court enter an Order pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g) requiring Defendant to pay interest plus the costs of this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and expenses; and
